FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

WHAT: Leon County Driver's License Clinic

WHEN: Friday, October 13th at 8:30 AM – 2:00 PM

WHERE: Leon County Courthouse Annex on Thomasville Road

The Leon County Court will conduct a Driver's License Clinic on October 13, 2017 presided over by Leon County Judge Stephen Everett and Leon County Judge J. Layne Smith.

The purpose is to inform individuals what they need to do to become eligible to legally drive again, and if possible, restore driving privileges through the on-site assistance of the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles, Department of Revenue, and Leon County Clerk of Court.

There are 250 Leon County residents pre-registered for this Friday. After pre-registered participants are served, walk-ins will be welcomed after 11:30am, if space is available.

Additional assistance was/will be provided by the Leon County Sheriff's Office, State Attorney, Public Defender, Leon County Office of Intervention and Detention Alternatives, Leon County Office of Resource Stewardship, and Leon County Tax Collector, Supervisor of Elections, and Property Appraiser.

Constitutional Officers scheduled to be present include Leon County Judge Stephen Everett, Leon County Judge J. Layne Smith, Clerk of Court Gwen Marshall, State Attorney Jack Campbell, and Public Defender Andy Thomas. These individuals will be available for interviews if you would like.
