

Lucke

Hey, I'm Lucke! I was born in Michigan but raised in Nebraska. My first job was service-dog in training, so I was around tons of dogs and humans all the time. Then my mom adopted me. They thought I would be much better as a therapy dog because I love people so much! Now I live in Florida. At home, I have a dog brother named Miles who I love to play and run with while I am not working. Something interesting about me is that I love ice cubes! When my mom gets them out of the freezer I always beg. Another cool thing about me is that I can snort like a pig. Whenever I am calm and being scratched on the chest, I start snorting and can barely control it. If you are calm, quiet and pet me softly, you may be lucky enough to hear it!

About Lucke: My name is Lucke, pronounced "lucky" like Lucky Charms, but spelled with an E. I am a male, Golden Retriever. My birthday is May 28, 2016.

Lucke and Sydney

This is my human mom, Sydney. Before we go on visits, she washes me and brushes out my blond fur, checks my ears and teeth, making sure I am clean and healthy for visiting. She takes me all kinds of places to visit with both big and little people. She also gives me treats while we are out and about, which I really love! If you are curious about how I got to change jobs from being a service dog to a therapy dog, you can ask her. She loves to talk about me. We look forward to seeing you around!

Love, Lucke

Team Activities: Mom and I love to meet with children, adults and seniors. We visit at hospitals, courts, assisted living facilities and rehabilitation centers.
