09/02/2004 at 12:39 PM, BOB INZER, CLERK OF COURTS

IN THE SECOND CIRCUIT OF FLORIDA
OFFICE OF THE CHIEF JUDGE

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER NO. 72-2

IN RE: Assignment of Circuit Judges to County Court to complete cases transferred from Circuit Court

In each case pending in the Circuit Court prior to January 2, 1973 but which is transferred to the County Court because the amount in controversy is less than $2,500.00 and in which a circuit judge has prior thereto conducted a hearing or entered an order or judgment, the said circuit judge is hereby assigned to the county court to which said case is assigned for the purpose of bringing said case to a final disposition. Nothing herein shall be deemed jurisdictional or to impair or affect any order or judgment which may be entered or made by a county court judge of the county court to which said case is transferred, the purpose of this Order being to facilitate disposition of the case and to avoid duplication and overlapping of judicial labor in such case.

DONE and ORDERED in Chambers at Tallahassee, Florida this 28th day of December, A.D., 1972.
