OF FLORIDA.

OFFICE OF THE CHIEF JUDGE

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER NO. 73-44

IN RE: Uniform order setting pre-trial conferences in civil cases pursuant to RCP 1.200 (b).

In accordance with the provision set forth in RCP 1.200 (b) requiring orders setting pre-trial conferences to be uniform throughout the territorial jurisdiction of the court the following rule for the Second Judicial Circuit is adopted, with the concurrence of a majority of the circuit judges thereof:

1. Unless the parties or their counsel, with the concurrence of the trial judge involved, shall agree otherwise, an order setting a pre-trial conference in a civil case shall be issued not less than twenty days before such conference and shall be pursuant to announcement of the Court to counsel at the calling of the calendar or sounding of the docket at which time a trial date is fixed. The trial judge setting the pre-trial conferences as beforesaid shall cause the Order to be filed in the cause with the Clerk, with copies to parties or their counsel of record.

Nothing herein shall be construed as preventing any stipulation or waiver by the parties that a pre-trial conference be set otherwise than herein provided.

DONE and ORDERED in Chambers at Tallahassee, Florida this 30th day of November, A.D., 1973.
