F. The administrative judges of the several sections and divisions are authorized to request the assistance of county court judges hereinafter designated in any cases or matters within the assignments of said administrative judges, and, to the extent herein set forth, the said county court judges are assigned to the circuit court for such purposes, namely:

1. County Court Judge H. Y. Reynolds of Gadsden County or his successor is assigned to the Circuit Courts of Gadsden County and Liberty County.
2. County Court Judge Hal S. McClamma of Leon County is assigned to the Probate Division of the Circuit Court of Leon County.
3. County Court Judges Eldon F. McLeod of Franklin County or his successor and Evelyn R. Flack of Wakulla County are severally assigned to the Circuit Courts of Franklin and Wakulla County.

G. Circuit Judges who are not resident in Leon County are requested to select and designate certain days for availability for hearings and other procedures in Tallahassee to facilitate scheduling and calendaring by the Leon based secretaries. Likewise, judges with other assignments in a county or counties outside their residences are requested to set regular and definite days for chambers and trial procedures in such counties. Such designations are not expected to be inflexible but with reasonable regularity to enable clerks and other officials, as well as attorneys, to make plans for such visits.

H. It is suggested that judges having civil case assignments give consideration to setting aside
