IN THE COUNTY COURT IN AND
FOR THE SECOND JUDICIAL
CIRCUIT FOR LEON COUNTY, FLORIDA

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER 82-8

RE: Plea Disposition Days

It has been brought to the attention of the Court that cases have been set for plea disposition in County Court that have not first been scheduled in the formal arraignment.

Beginning May 1, 1982, no cases shall be set for plea disposition days unless the defendant has previously been arraigned and a formal plea of not guilty has been entered on behalf of the defendant. All cases set for plea disposition days should be only those cases which a defendant has previously entered a plea at arraignment and wishes to have the case assigned a trial date or a change of plea from not guilty either guilty or no contest is to be entered.

As to arraignment day only those cases in which a plea has not been previously entered are to be set for arraignment. For example those cases where the defendant has been arrested and gone through first appearance or bonded out should be set for the arraignment day.

DONE AND ORDERED in Chambers this 30th day of April, 1982.
