In cases in which a defendant is arrested and taken into custody on a charge of No Valid Driver's License (F.S. 322.03) or License Not Carried and Exhibited on Demand (F.S. 322.15) and the Defendant is unable to produce any evidence of his identity whatever, the Sheriff, in his discretion, is hereby authorized to release on recognizance such Defendant under the following circumstance:

The purpose of this policy is to avoid the possibility of an arrestee who is otherwise unidentifiable providing a false name to an officer and being released in the field after the citation is issued. Further, it is to prevent the need of requiring persons who simply were without any identification, but who otherwise ordinarily would not be required to post a bond to be released upon some proof of their identity.
