ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER NO. 82-12

RE: Enforcement of Court Ordered Child Support Cases

From and after September 1, 1982, all hearings for enforcement of child support court orders, which have been entered by the Circuit Court and which have directed support payments to be made to and through the Child Support Section of the Office of the Sheriff of Leon County, shall be brought before County Judges Richard L. Hood, of Gadsden County, Charles D. McClure, Hal S. McClamma and John E. Crusoe, of Leon County. The said judges shall furnish to the Child Support Section the days and hours they shall be available for such hearings and the personnel of the Section shall schedule the cases before the several judges and give appropriate notice of same. The said judges shall enter such orders and directives for the enforcement of the Child Support circuit court orders, as shall be deemed by them lawful and proper, and the same shall be enforced accordingly.

DONE AND ORDERED in chambers at Tallahassee, Florida this 3rd day of August, 1982.
