Any weekend or holiday depositions in which the reporter is called in, the rates are negotiable between the court reporter and the parties.

4. Grand Jury and Coroner's Inquest

The rate shall be the same as allowed for reporting civil matters.

5. Reporting Final Arguments

Pursuant to Rule 2.070(b), Florida Rules of Judicial Administration, all trial proceedings are to be reported and no part of the proceedings shall be omitted unless all of the parties agree to do so and the Court approves the agreement. Therefore, all proceedings, including final arguments, in criminal and juvenile matters shall be reported unless all parties agree to omit same and the judge approves. Pursuant to Chapter 29, Florida Statutes, and particularly Section 29.03, an official court reporter is entitled to receive compensation for reporting such final arguments. This statute is construed to mean a reporter may charge $10.00 per side for each such argument reported for a total of no more than $20.00. However, if there are multiple defendants separately represented by different counsel, the reporter may charge $10.00 for each argument made.

B. TRANSCRIPTS

Each page of transcription shall contain all of the requirements as outlined in the Florida Rules of Judicial Administration, Rule 2.070(f), or any amendment thereof by the Supreme Court of Florida.
