3. You are required to implement the Income Deduction Order no later than the first payment date which occurs no more than 14 days after the date the Income Deduction Order was served on you.

4. You are required to forward, within two days after each date the obligor is entitled payment from you, to the Petitioner, specified in the Income Deduction Order, the amount deducted from the obligor/respondent's income. This shall include a statement as to whether the amount totally or partially satisfies the periodic amount specified in the Income Deduction Order, and the specific date each deduction is made.

5. If you fail to deduct the proper amount from the obligor/respondent's income, you are liable for the amount you should have deducted, plus costs, interest, and reasonable attorney's fees.

6. You may collect up to $5.00 against the obligor/respondent's income to reimburse you for administrative costs for the first income deduction and up to $2.00 for each deduction thereafter.

7. The Income Deduction Order and this Notice to Payor, and in the case of a delinquency, the Notice of Delinquency, are binding on you until further notice of the obligee, the Title IV-D agency (Department of Revenue), or the court or you no longer provide income to the obligor, court of this state. The obligor would be entitled to reinstatement and all wages and benefits lost plus reasonable attorney's fees and costs incurred.

11. The Income Deduction Order has priority over all other legal processes under state law pertaining to the same income. Payment, as required by the Income Deduction Order, is a complete defense by you against any claims of the obligor or the obligor's creditors as to the sum paid.

12. When you receive Income Deduction Orders requiring that the income of two or more obligors be deducted and sent to the same depository, you may combine the amounts that are to be paid to the depository in a single payment as long as you clearly identify that portion of the payment attributable to each obligor.

13. If you receive more than one Income Deduction Order against this obligor, _____ you shall contact the court for further instructions. INSTRUCTIONS FOR FAMILY LAW FORM 12.906(a),
VERIFIED PETITION FOR TEMPORARY LEGAL CUSTODY OF MINOR CHILD(REN)

When should this form be used?

This form may be used to ask the court to enter an order giving you temporary legal custody of minor child(ren), if you are:

- a relative of a minor child(ren) AND you and the parents of the child(ren) have agreed you should have temporary custody; OR
- a relative of a minor child(ren) AND the minor child(ren) live with you.

A relative is defined as the child's brother, sister, grandparent, aunt, uncle, or cousin.

If you believe you are the father of the minor child(ren) and paternity has NOT been established, please see the instructions for the Petition to Determine Paternity and for Related Relief, Florida Family Law Form 12.983(a) or the Verified Petition for Temporary Legal Custody of the Minor Child(ren) by Putative Father, Florida Family Law Form 12.983(k), to determine which form applies to your situation.

This petition addresses the issues of temporary custody, visitation, and child support.

This form should be typed or printed in black ink. After completing this form, you should sign the form before a notary public. You should file the original with the clerk of the circuit court in the county where you live and keep a copy for your records.

What should I do next?

For your case to proceed, you must properly notify the parents or legal guardians of the minor child(ren) of the petition. If you know where he or she lives, you should use personal service. If you absolutely do not know where he or she lives, you may use constructive service. You may also be able to use constructive service if the parents or legal guardians resides in another state or country. For more information on constructive service, see Notice of Action for Dissolution of Marriage, Florida Family Law Form 12.913(a), and Affidavit of Diligent Search and Inquiry, Florida Family Law Form 12.913(b). If you need to use constructive service, use the Notice of Action for Dissolution of Marriage, Florida Family Law Form 12.913(a), after striking through "for Dissolution of Marriage" and inserting "for Temporary Legal Custody of Minor Child(ren)." If the other party is in the military service of the United States, additional steps for service may be required. See, for example, Memorandum for Certificate of Military Service, Florida Family Law Form 12.912(a). In sum, the law regarding constructive service and service on an individual in the military service is very complex and you may wish to consult an attorney regarding these issues.

Where can I look for more information?

Before proceeding, you should read "General Information for Pro Se Litigants" found at the beginning of these forms. The words that are in "bold underline" in these instructions are defined there. For further information, see chapter 751, Florida Statutes.

Special notes...

DRAFT Proposed Instructions for Florida Family Law Form 12.906(a), Verified Petition for Temporary Legal Custody of Minor child(ren)

UNOFFICIAL DOCUMENT

With this form you must also file the following:

- Parental Consent to Temporary Legal Custody of Minor Child(ren), Florida Family Law Form 12.906(b), if the parents of the minor child(ren) have agreed that you should have temporary legal custody of the minor child(ren).
- Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction Act (UCCJA) Affidavit, Florida Family Law Form 12.901(f).
- Child Support Guidelines Worksheet, Florida Family Law Form 12.901(g), if you are asking that child support be ordered.
- Affidavit of Indigency, Florida Family Law Form 12.901(c), if you are requesting that filing fees be waived.

Child Support... The court may order one or both parents to pay child support to assist the custodian in meeting the child(ren)'s material needs. Florida has adopted guidelines for determining the amount of child support to be paid. These guidelines are based on the combined income of both parents and take into account the financial contributions of both parents. The parent(s) of the minor child(ren) may have to file a Financial Affidavit, Florida Family Law Form 12.901(d) or (e), in order to calculate the amount of child support that should be paid using the Child Support Guidelines Worksheet, Florida Family Law Form 12.901(g).

Order of Temporary Legal Custody... These family law forms contain an Order on Verified Petition for Temporary Legal Custody of Minor Child(ren), Florida Family Law Form 12.995, which the judge may use in your case. You should check with the clerk, family law intake staff, or judicial assistant to see if you need to bring an order with you to the hearing. If so, you should type or print the heading, including the circuit, county, case number, division, and the parties' names, and leave the rest blank for the judge to complete at your hearing.

Nonlawyer... Remember, a person who is NOT an attorney is called a nonlawyer. If a nonlawyer helps you fill out these forms, that person must give you a copy of a Disclosure from Nonlawyer, Florida Family Law Form 12.900, before he or she helps you. A nonlawyer helping you fill out these forms also must put his or her name, address, and telephone number on the bottom of the last page of every form he or she helps you complete.
